NARRATIVE:

Yadira Aleman is a documented gang member with an extensive adult criminal history that began at the age of 18. Her convictions include firearm possession by a felon, possession of a controlled substance, metal knuckles violation, felony vandalism, possession of controlled substances for sale, contempt of court and failing to report. She has served multiple state prison terms the longest a 3 year term for possession of a controlled substance for sale. Aleman was released from state prison to the supervision of the Los Angeles County Probation Department on April 20th, 2014. Under the Governor's Public Safety Realignment Act of 2011, better known as Assembly Bill 109 (AB 109) the responsibility of lower-level offenders was shifted from the State to Los Angeles County. She subsequently failed to report to her probation officer and an arrest warrant was issued in July 2014 after she absconded from post release community supervision (PRCS). Aleman qualified to be released to the supervision of probation, under AB 109, because her current commitment offense for possession of a firearm by a felon is defined as non-serious and non-violent under the California penal code. Her criminal history, gang member status and current failure to comply with the terms of release make her a most wanted. If you know her whereabouts please contact...
